

Senior Program Development Officer

Salary Range (full-time): $71,599-$77,368

Permanent and temporary positions; full-time and part-time positions

Qualifications

- Secondary school diploma (or employer-approved alternative)
- Experience in establishing and maintaining relationships with a variety of stakeholders

What does Senior Program development officer do?

Senior Program Development Officer administers Grants and Contributions agreements with community partners that help support jobs, training and social development.

A Senior Program Development Officer develops awareness and/or promotional strategies for departmental programs and services to the community. They participate with management in the development and decision-making of regional/local strategies, business plan exercises and/or program budgets. They establish and maintain working relationships with local, provincial and other federal government departments.

Why work for Employment and Social Development Canada/Service Canada?

- Opportunity to make real contributions in lives of Canadians.
- Competitive health, dental, parental benefits and pension.
- Opportunities for career progression in a wide variety of fields.
- Paid professional development and learning opportunities.
- Diverse and inclusive workplace; Canada's Best Diversity Employers Award Recipient.

Search for current opportunities: www.canada.ca/esdc-service-canada-careers