

Indigenous Wholistic Support

Prince George, British Columbia, Canada

Full Time

$74,688 per year

Posting Number: 24-177SP

College of New Caledonia

If you require an accommodation during any stage of our recruitment process, please contact hr@cnc.bc.ca to let us know how we can assist you.

Reporting to the Manager, Aboriginal Services, this position assesses student wellness concerns and responds appropriately by providing direct support, information about and or assistance in contacting services appropriate to their needs. Working from a strength-based perspective, the Indigenous Wholistic Support works collaboratively with other Student Services staff to optimize students' opportunities to connect to an integrated network of programs, services and supports that enhance their personal and academic success.

Skills & Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree (or higher) specializing in Psychology, Social Work, Community Services, Psychiatric Nursing, or other relevant field with a clinical practicum preferred.
- 2 years or more work experience at a similar level in post-secondary education, Social Services, Community Support and Outreach, or other related experience; or an equivalent combination of experience (both accumulated lived and worked experience) and education may be taken into consideration
- Proven history of cultural connections to an Indigenous community and have experience as a mentor around topics related to maintain holistic health and wellness from an Indigenous lens.
- Awareness of Indigenous wellness practices, ceremony, and needs of student's studying away from their home community.

For full details and/or to apply, visit our Career website <https://cnc.peopleadmin.ca/postings/8957>.

Open Date: 10/25/2024

Screening/Close Date: 11/8/2024